Never manually fill in a form again

Affirm's software platform Revolve™ enables the rapid development of customisable business solutions, including eForms, contract assembly and document workflow. It also empowers business professionals to:

- Avoid re-keying data with pre-filled forms
- Improve accuracy and reduce errors
- Assemble data driven contracts
- Reduce administration costs
- Save time and paper
- Complete forms anytime, anywhere
- Expedite forms approval with e-signatures

'In the modern world, most business cost savings revolve around the old fashioned issue of paperwork efficiency.'

Professor Kevin Hindle PhD, MBA, BA(Hons), CPA,
Professor of Entrepreneurship at Deakin University

Flexible. Secure. Compatible:

Affirm Software solutions are secure, reliable and compatible with most systems with an open API. As a fully hosted solution, Revolve™ solutions also has low set up and usage fees, and does not require software installation.

Secure: The security and availability of your documents is supported by our continuous back-up processes, data encryption systems and dedicated off-site servers.

Reliable: We promise a reliable and continual service, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

Compatible: Revolve™ can integrate with any system with an open API. This includes most CRM platforms, databases, and document management systems.

Flexible: Revolve™ software solutions are flexible enough to be applied to any vertical platform where document processing is an issue.

Onboard new employees quickly anytime, and anywhere, with customisable letters of offer, forms and policy documents and internal approvals. Then have the candidate review and approve their offer and on boarding pack digitally!

Affirm's Onboarding solution is flexible, easy to implement and is designed to fit in with your existing business processes.

Revolve Super & Insurance

Pre populate fund and insurance applications, validate external data and eliminate mistakes and double handling. This fully customisable platform empowers administrators to reap the financial benefits of straight through processing from inception to settlement.

Revolve Wealth Management

Automate product disclosure statements, streamline KYC compliance forms and discover the benefits of straight through processing with Revolve Wealth Management. This product is specifically designed for financial planners who are wasting time and money by manually filling out forms. Revolve™ allows your staff quickly and efficiently produce forms online, and can auto populate any form containing core re-use data.

Revolve Finance

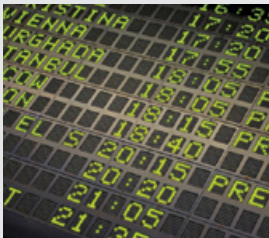

Produce accurate contracts and documents within minutes with Revolve Finance. From compliant loan applications and KYC contracts, through to managing funding requirements, Revolve Finance has the power to streamline your entire contracting processes.

Customer Feedback

"It has been amazing how fast we can get offers accepted now. Last week, it took only 20 minutes from the time the letter of offer was issued, until it was accepted by the candidate, including collecting all required data and acceptance of company policies."

Kristen Madigan,
HR Manager, Brookfield
